

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES

A HIGHLY DISTINCTIVE MODEL OF COLLABORATION IN HIGHER EDUCATION

FOUNDED 1926

Scripps College is a top-ranked, private, residential women's liberal arts college, founded in 1926 by newspaper publisher and philanthropist Ellen Browning Scripps. Scripps offers a rigorous interdisciplinary curriculum, a robust intellectual community, a commitment to diversity and inclusion, and a rich residential experience designed to shape the next generation of women leaders. Through active student participation in a demanding community of scholars, the College prepares graduates to contribute to society through leadership, service, integrity, and creativity. Top majors include biology, social science, psychology, communications, natural resources and conservation, and English.
