WHAT TO DO: Serial numbers uniquely identify each item/device, much like a finger print. This allows you to more specifically identify your property to the authorities if it is lost or stolen. If the property is recovered, it also makes the process of getting the property returned to you easier.

Print the form and drop it off at Campus Safety Dispatch located at 150 E. Eighth Street any time of day or night. The information will be stored at Campus Safety for your reference if something happens to your electronic device. Campus Safety will retain the record for four (4) years.

DISCLAIMER: This is provided as a service by the Campus Safety Department of the Claremont Colleges. By using this service, you understand that lost or stolen items are rarely found and retrieved by Campus Safety and/or local police authorities; that by providing serial numbers and other identifying information you understand that there is no guarantee that your items will ever be retrieved by the authorities. Users of this service further understand and agree that if you chose to make a report to local authorities is the user's responsibility.
