Getting Unstuck Workshop*
This three session workshop focuses on helping you understand depressive symptoms and building skills to manage these symptoms. The three sessions are divided into content that builds upon itself. The sessions include modules dedicated to (1) understanding depression, (2) exploring how thoughts and behaviors impact depression and (3) addressing how you can begin to make changes to thoughts and behaviors in order to better manage depression. By the end of the workshop, you will have your own individualized plan for getting unstuck.

Fridays, 1-2 p.m.
Round 1: 2/16, 2/23, 3/2
Round 2: 4/6, 4/13, 4/20
Contact: Brittany.Beasley@claremont.edu

Men’s Group*
This group focuses on men learning to improve their relationships with others and deepen their understanding of themselves. Typical themes include building confidence, learning about aspects of masculinity (e.g., embodiment of strength), and discussing their roles as men. Similar to other therapy groups, this group is open to other topics, including depression, anxiety, adjustment, and other personal concerns that may or may not be related to one’s gender identity. The group offers a safe place for members to share honest thoughts and support one another in meeting their personal goals.

Mondays, 3-4:30pm, starting Jan. 22
Contact: Sean.Cheng@claremont.edu or Grant.Goodman@claremont.edu

Mindfulness for Trauma Survivors Workshop
Each workshop will focus on typical reactions to trauma, information about the effects of trauma on the brain, and mindfulness & grounding techniques to cope with post-traumatic stress. The workshops are open to survivors of various types of trauma, including but not limited to sexual assault, child abuse, intimate partner violence, crime, and combat. The sessions are offered in a structured format, and include mindfulness and grounding exercises. Students are not required to share the details of their traumatic experiences during the sessions. These workshops are open on a drop-in basis, no group screening is needed, and students do not have to attend all sessions to participate.
