

Groups and Workshops

Men's Group*

This group focuses on men learning to improve their relationships with others and deepen their understanding of themselves. Typical themes include building confidence, learning about aspects of masculinity (e.g., embodiment of strength), and discussing their roles as men. Similar to other therapy groups, this group is open to other topics, including depression, anxiety, adjustment, and other personal concerns that may or may not be related to one's gender identity. The group offers a safe place for members to share honest thoughts and support one another in meeting their personal goals.

Will meet on 9/27, 10/4, 10/19, 10/24, 10/30, 11/8

Email for specific times

Contact: Anushree.Belur@claremont.edu

Men's Group*

This group focuses on men learning to improve their relationships with others and deepen their understanding of themselves. Typical themes include building confidence, learning about aspects of masculinity (e.g., embodiment of strength), and discussing their roles as men. Similar to other therapy groups, this group is open to other topics, including depression, anxiety, adjustment, and other personal concerns that may or may not be related to one's gender identity. The group offers a safe place for members to share honest thoughts and support one another in meeting their personal goals.

Mondays, 3-4:30 pm starting September 10th

Contact: Sean.Cheng@claremont.edu or

Grant.Goodman@claremont.edu

Queer Support Group*

This group is open to any students of the 7C's who identify as queer and are looking for ways to connect with other queer identified students for support. Weekly group topics initiated by group members and may include identity development, coming out, intersectionality, academic concerns, experiences as a queer or trans person of color, feeling safe on campus, family issues, religion, stress/coping, and relationships/dating issues.

Wednesdays, 4:30-5:30 pm starting September 26th

Contact: Mary.Weber@claremont.edu

Anxiety Toolbox Workshop

This three session workshop focuses on helping you understand anxiety symptoms and build skills to manage these symptoms. The three sessions are divided into content that builds upon itself. The sessions include modules dedicated to (1) understanding anxiety, (2) introducing a method for slowing down and disentangling the experience of anxiety, and (3) developing alternative responses to anxiety. By the end of the workshop, you will have your own individualized plan for managing anxiety.

Fridays, 1-2pm

Will meet on 10/5, 10/12, 10/19

Contact: Vilma.Fuentes@claremont.edu

Students of Color Group*

This group provides a space for students of color to discuss the complexities of navigating personal and interpersonal spaces within and outside of The Claremont Colleges. Students can discuss, explore, and give voice to feelings and experiences related to culture shock, campus climate, racism, racial identity, oppression and privilege, self-esteem, relationships, family, intersectionality, stress/coping, and other topics of interest.

Fridays, 2:30-4 pm starting Oct 5th

Contact: Lisette.Sanchez2@claremont.edu or

Dana.Reyes@claremont.edu

Getting Unstuck Workshop

This three session workshop focuses on helping you understand depressive symptoms and building skills to manage these symptoms. The three sessions are divided into content that builds upon itself. The sessions include modules dedicated to (1) understanding depression, (2) exploring how thoughts and behaviors impact depression and (3) addressing how you can begin to make changes to thoughts and behaviors in order to better manage depression. By the end of the workshop, you will have your own individualized plan for getting unstuck.

Fridays, 1-2 pm

Will meet on 10/26, 11/2, 11/9

Contact: Mary.Weber@claremont.edu

Women's Group*

This group is for women who would like to share and explore issues that have a daily effect on their lives. Participants will receive and provide support to realize an empowered living. Topics for discussion include: self-esteem, responsibility for others and need for self-care, family, relationships and intimacy, communication, academic pressure, and life transitions.

Wednesdays, 4-5 pm starting October 3rd

Contact: Carrie.Park@claremont.edu or

Beth.Perlman@claremont.edu

* Group/Workshop requires a screening appointment. Please contact group leader for details.

Please email the contact person if you are interested in any of the groups above or have any questions about the group. For any other general group inquiries, contact Sean.Cheng@claremont.edu.