2018

Our students asked, and we listened!

The Black Book is an OBSA student staff-generated resource guide containing essential information tailored to the needs of students of African descent. This collection is part of our office's retention efforts and aligns with our service mission on behalf of Black students at The Claremont Colleges.

How to use this guide

- Locate supportive staff and faculty of African descent on any campus
- Locate shared services and career center offices
- Find Black cultural events, concerts and other activities off campus
- Find Black-owned and 7C Black alumni-owned businesses and services
- Use it as a starting point to find scholarships and other opportunities for students of African descent

What else you should know

This collection is not exhaustive and we'd love YOUR input in keeping the guide current and accurate. Please submit any suggested resources (name, type, address, website and contact) to obsa@cuc.claremont.edu with the subject BLACK BOOK to ensure your entries can be considered.

In solidarity,

The Office of Black Student Affairs Team

Lydia Middleton, Dean and Director

Nick Daily, Assistant Dean

Latreace Cox, Administrative and Events Coordinator

Graduate student staff: Amber Kea-Edwards, Cleopatre Thelus, Tiffani J. Smith. Undergraduate student staff: Ellington Bramwell and Isaac Dewey Tucker-Rasbury

Cover images: Students, faculty and staff at OBSA's 2017 STEM mixer and the 1968 Claremont Colleges Black Student recruitment brochure cover.

Special thanks to Cleopatre Thelus for compiling the information that appears in this guide!

About The Office of Black Student Affairs

Mission

The Office of Black Student Affairs (OBSA) is a cultural center and service unit within the Claremont University Consortium. On behalf of The Claremont Colleges, OBSA is dedicated to providing support, resources and space for students of African descent to feel safe, valued, informed and connected. OBSA offers a range of programs, services and activities on behalf of enrolled 7C students of African descent, faculty, staff and allies. Our key service areas include identity-based workshops, skill building activities, mentoring, arts engagement activities, student organizational support, professional/career development workshops, the sharing of 7C resources and referrals, heritage-month programming and other monthly celebrations, and collaborative partnerships with 7C colleges, departments and organizations.
