

CHUCK THOMPSON

Chief Information Officer

Chuck Thompson was named chief information officer for Claremont University Consortium (CUC) on Jan. 1, 2016. He is responsible for providing IT services in support of all of The Claremont Colleges as well as for supporting the IT needs of CUC.

Prior to coming to CUC, Chuck was assistant dean and chief information officer for the College of Engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. While in that role he oversaw the consolidation of all IT staff in the college into a single shared services organization. He was also very involved with campus-wide activities such as compute cluster consolidation, data center consolidation, the deployment of a campus-wide unified communications system and serving as a facilitator for a leadership program for campus IT staff.

Chuck has B.S. and M.S. degrees in computer science from the University of Illinois.
