COLIN TUDOR
Secretary to the TCC Board and Assistant Vice President for Community Relations

Colin Tudor was appointed secretary to the TCC Board and assistant vice president of community engagement on March 1, 2019. In the role as secretary to the TCC board he provides executive management support and research assistance to the board of directors, as well as executive management support to the Council of The Claremont Colleges. As the AVP of community engagement, Colin will work to strengthen relationships and build partnerships within the city of Claremont, the broader Claremont community, and the local region.

Prior to joining TCCS, Colin held various roles with the City of Claremont including serving as the assistant city manager from 2012 through February of 2019. In this capacity, he was responsible for city-wide day to day operations, policy development and analysis for the city council, committees, and the city manager. Colin was directly responsible for the city’s administrative services department including personnel, city clerk, information technology, risk management, and public information. He has worked collaboratively with other regional organizations to collaborate on critical initiatives, including the Foothill Gold Line Extension, the Los Angeles County Emergency Medical Services Commission, and the Amgen Tour of California 2011 Stage 7 Start. Colin has also worked extensively with local community groups on a variety of initiatives.

Colin grew up in Claremont and graduated from Claremont McKenna College with a B.A. in philosophy and psychology. He also holds a master’s degree in public administration from the University of La Verne.
