"My own very deep hope is that instead of one great, undifferentiated university, we might have a group of institutions divided into small colleges - somewhat on the Oxford type - around a library and other utilities which they would use in common. In this way I should hope to preserve the inestimable personal values of the small college while securing the facilities of a great university. Such a development would be a new and wonderful contribution to American education."

Report of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee
The Claremont Colleges, Inc.

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Claremont Colleges, Inc., which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Claremont Colleges, Inc. as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of The Claremont Colleges, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about The Claremont Colleges, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of The Claremont Colleges, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about The Claremont Colleges, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION:

The Claremont Colleges, Inc. ("TCC"; formerly Claremont University Consortium) is the support organization for an affiliated group of independent colleges known as The Claremont Colleges. Each college within the group is a separate corporate entity governed by its own board of trustees. TCC is governed by its Board of Directors, which consists of the presidents and board chairs of the seven colleges, the TCC CEO, and outside directors.

Support services provided to The Claremont Colleges by TCC include: a central library system, health and counseling services, ethnic centers, an interfaith chaplaincy, central bookstore, campus safety, physical plant and facilities support, and financial, real estate, risk management and employee benefits services. Additional functions include managing land for future institutions and college expansion and promoting cooperation among members to enhance educational excellence. These services and facilities are shared by members of the group through a combination of cost allocations based on use and direct charges for services rendered. The objective of TCC as a nonprofit support institution is service, and the primary obligation of accounting and reporting is for resources received and applied rather than the determination of net income. The following accounting policies of TCC are in accordance with those generally accepted for nonprofit organizations.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of reporting cash funds, cash and cash equivalents includes demand deposit bank accounts and sweep accounts. TCC maintains cash on deposit at one institution. The amount on deposit fluctuates and at times exceeds the insured limit of $250,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which potentially subjects TCC to credit risk.

Accounts Receivable

The majority of the receivable balances relate to direct charge services provided to the members of The Claremont Colleges and its affiliates. No interest is charged. TCC determined that the appropriate method to estimate expected credit losses of its accounts receivables is a provisional loss rate matrix. TCC adjusts this loss rate as necessary to reflect the effects of current and future economic conditions. TCC believes that this method forms a reasonable basis on which to determine expected credit losses for its accounts receivable because accounts receivables can be grouped in to one pool as they are generally comprised of a homogenous pool of receivables. Historical credit loss experience on accounts receivables should be indicative and /or representative of future expected credit as the composition of trade receivables are consistent with that used in developing the historical credit-loss percentages. No allowance accounts have been established based on historical financial knowledge and experience with The Claremont Colleges and its affiliates. Balances deemed uncollectable are written off through a charge to credit loss and a credit to accounts receivable.

Prepaid Expenses, Deposits, and Other Assets

Prepaid expenses consist primarily of payments made in advance for services to be received in future periods, such as academic software and licenses, maintenance contracts, and other subscription services. These amounts are recognized as assets and expensed in the period in which the related services are rendered or the benefit is realized.

Deposits represent housing security deposits held in connection with rental properties. These deposits are refundable upon termination and subject to the terms of the respective agreements.

Other assets consist of inventories held for use in operations or for resale. Management reviews the carrying value of inventory biannually for material changes and impairments.

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES, INC.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: Continued

Other Long-Lived Assets

Other long-lived assets include capitalized implementation costs for software as a service (SaaS) agreements. SaaS is a software delivery method that provides access to software and its functions remotely as a web-based service over the internet. Other long-lived assets are amortized over the contract term. As of June 30, 2025 and 2024, other long lived assets included $641,444 and $898,021 net of amortization, respectively. Amortization expense for the years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 was $256,578.

Right of Use Asset and Lease Obligations

TCC recognizes a Right-of-Use (ROU) asset and lease obligations for leases with an expected term greater than twelve months and with a discounted value greater than $100,000 for building and $25,000 for equipment leases on its statements of financial position at commencement date, which is the date TCC gains access to the property or underlying asset. The ROU asset is determined based on the lease obligation adjusted for lease incentives received. The lease obligation is determined based on the present value of future minimum rental payments using a risk-free incremental borrowing rate in effect at the time of the lease commencement. Operating lease cost is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Certain optional renewal periods were not included in the determination of the ROU asset and lease obligation if management determined it was not reasonably certain that the lease would be extended.

Investments

TCC's policy is to maintain a diversified investment portfolio. Where permitted by law, TCC pools investments for management purposes. The remainder of the investments are managed as separate investments. Marketable securities are reported at fair value. Alternative investments are carried at estimated fair value provided by the management of alternative investment partnerships or funds. TCC reviews and evaluates the values provided by the investment managers and agrees with the valuation methods and assumptions used in determining the fair value of the alternative investments. Because alternative investments are not readily marketable, the estimated fair value is subject to uncertainty and, therefore, may differ from the fair value that would have been used had a readily available market for the investment existed, and such differences could be material. At times the balances of TCC's investment accounts exceed the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC) limits.

The cost of securities sold is determined by the fair value and is used to compute realized gains and losses. Unrealized gains and losses reflect the changes in fair values of investments from the prior year. Investment income and gains and losses on investments are reported net of direct and indirect investment expenses and as increases and decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation. The date of record for investments is the trade date. TCC utilizes the equity method of accounting when required.

Due to the risks associated with certain investments and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of the investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term could materially affect account balances and the amounts reported in the Statements of Financial Position.

Management of Pooled Investments

TCC follows an investment policy which anticipates a greater long-range return through investing for capital appreciation and accepts lower current yields from dividends and interest. In order to offset the effect of lower current yields for current operations, the Board of Directors has adopted a spending policy for pooled investments whereby annually, if the ordinary income of pooled investments is insufficient to provide the full amount of investment return specified, the balance may be appropriated from cumulative realized gains of the pooled investments. At June 30, 2025 and 2024, cumulative net gains totaling $5,284,831 and $5,764,439, respectively, are recorded in both net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions and are available for appropriation under TCC spending policy. The spending policy for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 was 4.5% of the trailing twenty-quarter moving average unit market value of pooled investments or $1,400,908 and $1,379,957, respectively. A portion of the total spending policy relates to endowment funds held for the benefit of other Claremont Colleges. Accordingly, distributions of $148,333 and $327,863 were made to those institutions for the years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES, INC.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: Continued

Endowment Investment Strategy

TCC uses a single multi-strategy investment fund (Claremont Investment Fund, or the "Fund") whose investment strategy focuses on varied investment opportunities to provide a diversified single portfolio for investors. TCC's interest in the Fund is redeemable at net asset value following the fifth anniversary of TCC's first deposit date and requires a written full withdrawal request at least 180 days prior to the annual redemption date.

Endowment Funds

The Board of Directors of TCC interpreted the California Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) to state that TCC, in the absence of explicit donor stipulations to the contrary, may appropriate for expenditure or accumulate so much of an endowment fund as TCC determines prudent for the uses, benefits, purposes, and duration for which the endowment fund is established. As a result of this interpretation, TCC classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the value of gifts donated to the endowment, and (b) accumulations to the perpetual endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. Board designated funds or "Funds functioning as endowment" and their unappropriated earnings are classified as net assets without donor restrictions. In accordance with California UPMIFA, TCC considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund
- (2) The mission of TCC and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- (5) The expected total return from income, appreciation, and depreciation of investments
- (6) Other resources of TCC
- (7) The investment policies of TCC

Funds with Deficiencies

From time to time, as a result of market declines, the fair value of certain donor restricted endowments were less than the historical dollar value. Deficiencies of this nature have been recorded as reductions in net assets with donor restrictions. TCC policy does not prevent spending from underwater funds, unless specifically prohibited by the donor or relevant laws and regulations. As of June 30, 2025 and June 30, 2024 there were no funds with deficiencies.

Fair Value Measurement of Financial Instruments

A financial instrument is defined as a contractual obligation that ultimately ends with the delivery of cash or an ownership interest in an entity. Disclosures included in these notes regarding the fair value of financial instruments have been derived using external market sources, estimates using present value or other valuation techniques.

TCC carries most investments at fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Under this standard, fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset (i.e. the "exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques was used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES, INC.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 – Inputs that reflect unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that TCC has the ability to access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset either directly or indirectly, including inputs in markets that are not considered to be active;
- Level 3 – Inputs that are unobservable.

Inputs are used in applying the valuation techniques and broadly refer to the assumptions that TCC uses to make valuation decisions, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may include quoted market prices, recent transactions, manager statements, periodicals, newspapers, provisions within agreements with investment managers and other factors. An investment's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The categorization of an investment within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the investment and does not necessarily correspond to TCC's perceived risk of that investment.

The investments in cash equivalents, fixed income funds, and certain equity funds are valued based on quoted market prices, and are therefore typically classified within Level 1. Cash equivalents are intended for long-term reinvestment.

The investments in hedge funds, certain domestic and equity funds, private equity funds, and limited partnerships are valued at net asset value (NAV), and are therefore classified under net asset value (NAV) per share (or equivalent). These assets are presented in the accompanying financial statements at fair value. TCC's determination of fair value is based upon the best available information provided by the investment manager and may incorporate management assumptions and best estimates after considering a variety of internal and external factors. Such value generally represents TCC's proportionate share of the partner's capital of the investment partnerships as reported by their general partners. For these investments, TCC, through its monitoring activities, agrees with the fair value as determined by the investment managers.

The general partners of the underlying investment partnerships generally value their investments at fair value and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Investments with no readily available market are valued at estimated fair value using meaningful third-party transactions, comparable public market valuations and/or the income approach. Consideration is also given to financial condition and operating results of the investment, the amount that the investment partnerships can reasonably expect to realize upon the sale of the securities, and any other factors deemed relevant. An investment can be carried at acquisition price (cost) if little has changed since the initial investment of TCC and is most representative of fair value. Investments with a readily available market (listed on a securities exchange or traded in the over-the-counter market) are valued at quoted market prices or at an appropriate discount from such price if marketability of the securities is restricted.

The investments in the Claremont Investment Fund are valued at net asset value (NAV) and are therefore classified under NAV per share (or equivalent). TCC's determination of fair value is based upon the best available information provided by the investment manager and may incorporate management assumptions and best estimates after considering a variety of internal and external factors. Such value generally represents TCC's proportionate share of the partner's capital of the investment partnerships as reported by their general partners. For these investments, TCC has determined, through its monitoring activities, to rely on the fair value as determined by the investment managers.

Although TCC uses its best judgment in determining the fair value, there are inherent limitations in any methodology. Future confirming events could affect the estimates of fair value and could be material to the financial statements. These events could also affect the amount realized upon liquidation of the investments.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost representing the original purchase price or the fair value at the date of the gift, less accumulated depreciation. TCC capitalizes plant asset purchases with a useful life of five years or more and a cost equal to or greater than $100,000 for buildings and land improvements, $25,000 for equipment, and all land and vehicles. Depreciation expense is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of buildings, permanent improvements and equipment (generally 40 years for buildings, 25 years for land improvements and 7 years for equipment). The costs and accumulated depreciation of assets sold or retired are removed from the accounts and related gains and losses are included in the Statements of Activities.

TCC has recorded asset retirement obligations under generally accepted accounting principles related to certain fixed assets, primarily for disposal of regulated materials upon eventual retirement of the assets.

Funds Held in Trust for Others

Funds held in trust for others represents other Claremont College funds for ongoing intercollegiate programs where TCC is the administrator.

Net Asset Categories

The accompanying financial statements present information regarding TCC's financial position and activities according to the following net asset categories:

Net Assets without Donor Restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor imposed stipulations and are available for use in general operations or are part of what's invested in property, plant and equipment (net of related debt). However, the governing board may designate any of these funds for specific purposes (i.e., specific purpose reserves or endowments).

Net Assets with Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor imposed stipulations (1) that will be met either by actions of TCC or the passage of time or (2) that are to be perpetually maintained by TCC. Generally, the donors of these assets permit TCC to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes.

Expiration of Donor-Imposed Restrictions

The expiration of a donor-imposed restriction on a contribution or on endowment income is recognized in the period in which the restriction substantially expires. At that time, the related resources are released to net assets without donor restrictions. A restriction expires when the stipulated time period has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both and for unexpended earnings of endowment when appropriated by the Board. It is TCC's policy to release the restrictions on contributions of cash or other assets received for the acquisitions of long-lived assets when the long-lived assets are placed into service.

Revenue Recognition

Sales and services revenues are recorded when the services are provided.

Unconditional gifts and grants from donors, including contributions receivable (unconditional promises to give), are recognized as revenue in the period received and are reported as increases in the appropriate category of net assets. Gifts of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value. Contributions to be received in future periods are discounted at an appropriate credit adjusted discount rate. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is when the conditions on which they depend are met.

Rental income from operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the initial lease term.

Revenue Recognition (continued)

Investment returns, including investment income, net of investment expenses, and gains and losses, are recorded on a trade date and reported as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation.

Revenue and Expenses Without Donor Restrictions

TCC reports operating revenues and expenses in the net assets without donor restrictions section of the Statements of Activities. Operations are those annual activities which support the core mission of TCC.

Operating revenues include charges for business, student and academic services. Business services include community and government relations, benefits administration, campus safety, engineering and construction, utilities, repairs and maintenance, construction management and facilities planning, accounting, audit and other financial services, food service contract administration, human resources, information services, real estate and housing administration, and risk management administration. Student and academic services include health and wellness, bookstore, library, chaplains and cultural student affairs. Operating revenues also include gifts, certain investment income, releases of net assets with donor restrictions and miscellaneous income.

Operating expenses (for which the operating revenues are used) include salaries and benefits, departmental expenses, depreciation, amortization and interest. These expenses are reported by functional expense categories as defined in the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS): academic support services, student services, institutional support services and administration and general. Program service expenses fall under the categories of academic support services, student services and institutional support services. Administration and general expenses represent TCC support costs. Certain components of administration and general expenses are determined by allocating costs from combined use operations. These allocations are based on use estimates. Depreciation and operation and maintenance of plant expenses are allocated to all functional categories based on building square footage. Interest expense on capital debt and other borrowings is allocated based on usage of debt-financed space.

Concentrations of Revenue Risk

TCC receives a significant percentage of its revenues from the five undergraduate and two graduate institutions in The Claremont Colleges group, which are all located in the same geographic area.

Transfers from Other Claremont Colleges

At times, consortial projects are financially managed by TCC and the resulting asset, liability, or expense resides with TCC. The members of The Claremont Colleges fund the projects, based on an agreed upon formula and timeline, through transfers. No agreements are established between TCC and the members of The Claremont Colleges to constitute a liability to members of The Claremont Colleges for consortial projects financially managed by TCC.

Insurance Policies

TCC administers workers' compensation, short-term disability and unemployment insurance programs for The Claremont Colleges. Premiums are allocated to the member institutions based on participation. Each institution self-insures for unemployment and short-term disability. Workers' compensation is insured under a loss sensitive program and the member institutions have exposure that exceeds premiums paid which are accrued for under accounts payable, accrued liabilities and other liabilities on the Statements of Financial Position. TCC believes that amounts reserved are adequate to fund projected claims.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

TCC is exempt from Federal and California income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, except for taxes on unrelated business income. Since TCC had no material unrelated business income for the years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. In accordance with generally accepted account principles, TCC had no uncertain tax positions at June 30, 2025 and 2024.

NOTE 3 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE:

Accounts receivable at June 30, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

TCC uses a single multi-strategy investment fund. The Claremont Investment Fund (the "Fund") uses an investment strategy focused on varied investment opportunities in order to provide a diversified single portfolio for investors. The portfolio is subject to equity market volatility. TCC's full interest in the Fund is redeemable at NAV and requires a written full withdrawal request at least 180 days prior to the annual redemption date. Additionally, partial withdrawal requests from the Fund are limited to 10% of the highest value of TCC's units during the fiscal year in which the request is made.

(1) Limited partnerships are invested with managers whose investment strategies consist of absolute return with long/short, event driven and relative value investments, private equity with investments in fund of funds that include buy-outs, turnarounds, and distressed hard assets and venture capital with investments in fund of funds. There are no redemption rights available for investors other than the liquidation of assets held by the fund, which will result in a distribution of capital to investors.

NOTE 6 - PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT:

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 7 - LINES OF CREDIT: Continued

In December 2023, TCC entered into an unsecured revolving line of credit agreement with Pomona College up to $5,000,000. The term of the line is 12 months and expired December 2024. The term of the agreement was later amended, increasing to 18 months and expired June 30, 2025. Proceeds are to only be used for funding of the Anthology Student Information System implementation. Any borrowings on the line would bear interest at the secured overnight financing rate (SOFR) plus 1.00%. As of June 30, 2025, TCC believes it was in compliance with all reporting requirements of the agreement. As of June 30, 2025, draws on the line of credit bear interest at rates varying from 4.30% to 5.12%. Borrowings outstanding as of June 30, 2025 and June 30, 2024 were $3,906,693 and $938,986, respectively.

In August 2018, TCC entered into an unsecured revolving line of credit agreement with a bank for $2,000,000. The term of the line was for one year and it was renewed on August 31, 2024 for a two year term. Any borrowings on the line would bear interest at the secured overnight financing rate (SOFR) plus 0.85%. The line of credit is subject to an unused commitment fee and letter of credit fee. As of June 30, 2025, TCC believes it was in compliance with all reporting requirements of the agreement. As of June 30, 2025 and June 30, 2024, the line of credit had an interest rate of 5.30% and 6.18%, respectively, and no borrowings were outstanding.

Interest expense on these lines of credit was $102,173 and $23,947 for the years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

As of June 30, 2025, lines of credit maturities were as follows:

Fiscal Years Ending June 30,	Principal Amount

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 14 - EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS:

Defined Contribution Plan

TCC maintains a defined contribution retirement plan which provides retirement benefits for certain administrative personnel through the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America. Under this defined contribution plan, TCC and participant contributions are used to purchase individual annuity contracts and investments equivalent to retirement benefits earned. Vesting provisions are full and immediate. Benefits commence upon retirement and pre-retirement survivor death benefits are provided. TCC contributions to the plan for the years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 totaled $2,467,055 and $2,237,864, respectively.

NOTE 15 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

It is the policy of TCC to provide disclosure to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of any related party transactions. There were no material related party transactions which required disclosure in the financial statements other than transactions with affiliated institutions.

TCC operates a service on a ground lease from one of the member colleges for which no rent is charged. This arrangement is designed for the mutual benefit of all The Claremont Colleges members.

In fiscal year 2025, TCC purchased a parcel of vacant land from a member institution of The Claremont Colleges for $9,045,000. The transaction was approved by the governing bodies of both entities and was conducted at fair market value, based on an independent third-party appraisal. No amounts were due to or from the related party as of June 30, 2025.

NOTE 16 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

Occasionally TCC is involved in certain lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of its operations. The ultimate resolution of these lawsuits is not expected to have a material effect on TCC's financial position or changes in net assets.

TCC has entered into various software subscription agreements with third-party vendors to support its operations. These agreements typically have terms of five years and require TCC to make periodic payments throughout the term of the contracts.

The future payments under these software subscription agreements as of June 30, 2025, are as follows:

Fiscal Years Ending June 30,	Amount
2026	$ 2,513,808
2027	2,543,902
2028	234,367
2029	175,130
2030	89,282
Total	$ 5,556,489

TCC has remaining commitments on contracts for various construction projects totaling approximately $2,461,706 as of June 30, 2025.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 17 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

In September 2025, TCC purchased a building from a member institution of The Claremont Colleges for $20,025,084. The transaction was approved by the governing bodies of both entities. The price is considered fair market value, based on an independent third-party appraisal.

In August 2025, TCC entered into a term loan agreement with a bank for $2,125,651.80. Proceeds are to only be used for construction of a solar carport. The term of the loan is for 20 years and shall bear interest at a fixed rate of 7.48%. Payments of approximately $17,111.11 are to be made monthly. TCC believes it is in compliance with all reporting requirements of the agreement.

TCC has evaluated subsequent events through October 30, 2025, which is the date the financial statements are available for issuance, and concluded that there were no other events or transactions that need to be disclosed.
